Very Quick Work.

When the storm interfered with the operation of the street railway Thursday afternoon, Dispatcher John Loftis did some very speedy work. Within an hour every car on the line was running on schedule time.

Business Good with Them.

William M. Cox & Co. are working full-hand. They will soon have the large tanks for the new Lange building completed. They have a contract at Flushing, Ohio, also one on Short Creek. Mr. Cox will leave next week for Fairmont to close a contract for a large job there.

A Fine Portrait.

A reporter of the INTELLIGENCER happened in Mr. John Myles' studio, South Side, yesterday and found the artist busily engaged on a portrait of Newell Platt, a prominent citizen of Pittsburgh. While the painting awaited the finishing touches it was a most speaking reproduction of a photograph, all that Mr. Myles had to work on.

At the Y. M. C. A.

The Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon men's meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association building are very interesting and helpful these warm summer days. The meeting at 8 o'clock to-night will be short and spirited. The Sunday meeting will be held at 4 o'clock as usual. All young men are invited to attend.

Hurt on the Ferry.

Yesterday the Island ferryboat Charleston went aground. Zack Robertson, who was aboard, was very anxious to catch a train on the Ohio River road, and a skill was secured to take him ashore. In his haste to get down the stairs he fell and skinned his face badly. He had to go back home, and miss his train, but was not seriously hurt.

The First Ward Meeting.

The committee to secure speakers for the First ward Republican Club for next Monday evening report back to the club that owing to other engagements Capt. B. B. Davener cannot be present, but they have secured Alex. R. Campbell, candidate for the house of delegates, S. O. Boyce and Mr. Campbell Richards. All the Republican clubs of the city are invited to this meeting, and if there is not room enough in the club room there will be an out-door meeting.

A Narrow Escape.

The Washington, Pa. Reporter says: "As Mrs. Charles Donel was returning a few days since from Wheeling, where she had been called by the death of her brother, Reed B. Roberts, she had a narrow escape from a serious accident. As she put her foot on the car step, at the Wheeling station, the brakeman called 'all aboard,' and there she clung, holding her baby and a satchel in one arm, and the train in motion. Conductor Ball was just then passing between the cars, and helped her on, else she must soon have dropped, with probably fatal result."

Will Hooy Coming.

"Old Hooy" Bill Hooy will be here next Thursday at the Opera House in his new play, "Flame," which is fashioned after the style of "A Parlor Match," and gives Hooy ample opportunity for his eccentric creation, and keeps the audience in roars of laughter from the rise until the fall of the curtain. He is surrounded by a company of twenty-five comic opera comedians, who are well known to every theatre goer in the country. John C. Rice has been especially engaged as Mr. Hooy's chief support, who will play the opposite character in "Flame."

A New Lunch Room.

C. E. VanKeuren, proprietor of the popular Twelfth street hotel which bears his name, has fitted up also an elegant lunch room at 1404 Market street, which he will open this morning. It is a clean, attractive place, everything being new and first class. He will make a specialty of chicken sandwiches, individual pot pie and other attractive lunches at popular prices.

Rev. George Stuart will conduct the services at the Moundsville camp grounds from August 9th to 19th.

Beer Five Cents, and Worth It.

An erroneous idon has gotten out that at the Washington Exchange, 1411 Market street, run by Fred Wagner, proprietor of the Washington, Pa., brewery, beer is sold at 3 cents. This is wrong. All the beers handled, including the Washington Beer and Milwaukee beer, are sold at 5 cents, and are worth the price.

HE SEEMS TO BE CRAZY.

J. P. Carnell, the Man who was Supposed to Have Been Killed,

IS PUT IN JAIL FOR SAFE KEEPING.

He Evidently Started the Story of His Death Himself, and had it Inserted in a Newspaper—Several Partly Finished Letters to His Father Found at His Boarding House. Peculiar Conduct.

Yesterday J. P. Carnell, supposed to be from Keyser or that vicinity, was arrested by Lieutenant Lukins and sent to jail by Squire Gillespie to await an inquest into his sanity, or intelligence from his family.

He is the man concerning whose alleged death Mr. Carney, of the Hotel Windsor, received an inquiry on Thursday, as printed exclusively in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER. A man who knew him and had seen the telegram as printed, saw him on Market street yesterday morning and informed Lieutenant Lukins, who upon questioning him saw that something was wrong, and he was taken into custody.

He was boarding at Isaac Adams's, on the Upper Market square, and in his room there were found several letters, none of them finished. Below is an extract from one:

WHEELING, W. VA., Aug. 2.

DEAR FATHER:—A terrible mistake has been made and I hasten to correct it. It was in this way: When I arrived here Monday eve, had my baggage transferred to the Windsor hotel. I then went and secured a boarding house, remained all night and Tues. morning I was so sick could not do a thing, and now when I went down to see about my baggage they would not let me have, said what I claimed bore the name of a man that was killed, and they showed me a special in the Register. I went to the Register men and they cannot account for the mistake, as the dispatch was sent in by their correspondent in Grafton.

He goes on to say that he proved his identity and got the baggage, and that the proprietor told him he had notified the postmaster at Burlington.

In another partly finished letter of the same date he says he has done a great wrong in making it appear that he was killed, and he begs forgiveness for the disgrace he has brought on his family. A third letter, also incomplete, also begs forgiveness. In both he speaks of the bad condition of his head, and complains of being dizzy and unable to work. He says he has only $2 left, and the officers want a license if he peddles pencils.

On Wednesday the Register printed the following:

GRAFTON, W. VA., July 31.—The body of a young man who has been run over by a O. & N. train No. 47 was brought here today. When near front of the man was struck by the train. Instantly killed and mangled beyond recognition. From papers in his pocket he was found to be J. P. Carnell, of Burlington, W. Va.

This, it was found yesterday, was left at the office Tuesday by Carnell himself, who said a man at Grafton asked him to hand it to the Register. Carnell also wrote a letter to the postmaster at Burlington, narrating his death, and signed to it the name of Mr. Carney, of the Windsor. A telegram was received yesterday asking if Mr. Carney wrote the letter.

Carnell wanted to secure a license to peddle photographs and a preparation to erase ink, but did not have the money to pay for it.

A year ago he had a package sent to him in care of the INTELLIGENCER, and telegraphed to the office asking that the charges be paid, and saying that he would call for the package. The charges were paid and the package remained uncalled for. This week Carnell called and paid the charges, saying he would get the package the next day, but he did not come back after it. His actions are those of a crazy man, and he is doubtless at least a little off his base.

To Cleanse the System

Loch Lynn Heights.

A more beautiful tract of land cannot be found on top of the mountains than this tract of nearly one hundred acres. It is located on the line of the Baltimore & Ohio east of Oakland, and three miles west of Deer Park and opposite Mountain Lake Park. Parkersburg and Wheeling gentlemen have recently purchased this property, and nearly 400 lots and 50 villa sites have been platted, and will be offered for sale August 9 and 10. This is a rare opportunity for persons who want summer homes on the mountains. The INTELLIGENCER certainly wishes our citizens and others, too, who are interested in this enterprise, good success to this commendable enterprise. See advertisement in this paper for terms, &c.
